COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission must produce testimonials of good moral character; and if from another College, evidence of regular dismission.

The proper time for examination is on Tuesday preceding Commencement, and the day before the opening of the Fall Session.

Students are admitted only on examination, both of the preparatory studies and of those previously pursued by the class which they desire to enter. When admitted to an advanced class, a fee of $5 is charged for each year's advancement, except when the student comes from another College.

Candidates for the Freshman Class are examined on the following books:

ENGLISH,.....Grammar; Geography; Outlines of Ancient and Modern History; Ancient Geography.

MATHEMATICS,..Arithmetic; Algebra through Quadratic Equations, with one unknown quantity.

LATIN,.....Andrews and Stoddard's Grammar; Cornelius Nepos, or Latin Reader; Cæsar (two books,) Virgil's Æneid (four books), or their equivalents.

GREEK,.....Crosby's or Hadley's Grammar and Xenophon's Anabasis.

The Grammar School of the Institution presents peculiar advantages to those who wish to be thoroughly prepared for admission.

DEPARTMENTS.

The Board of Trustees have established the following scheme of Departments of Study, and purpose to carry it out on the University principle of Elective Courses, as the means at their command shall enable them to do so.

I. Moral Science.

II. Ancient Languages and Literature.

III. Pure Mathematics.

IV. Philosophy and English Literature, including History and Constitutional Law.

V. Physics and Mixed Mathematics, and the application of Calculus to Natural Philosophy, Astronomy and Mechanics.

VI. Chemistry, and its application to Agriculture and the Arts.

VII. Physical Geography, Natural History, Mineralogy and Geology.

VIII. Biblical Literature and Hermeneutics.

IX. Modern Languages.

X. Civil and Mining Engineering, and Metallurgy.

The scheme embraces much more than can be accomplished in four years; and it was further agreed that those students who wish to obtain the Collegiate Degrees, shall devote the earlier part of their course as heretofore mainly to the elements of Classical learning and the Pure Mathematics; but that, for the latter part, certain studies be made optional, and that those who go through any of the prescribed special courses, as they may elect, shall be graduated Bachelors of Arts equally with those who complete the Classical Course.

SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

According to the preceding announcement, such students as desire are allowed to substitute Practical Chemistry for the Latin and Greek of the Junior and Senior years, and graduate with the usual degree of Bachelor of Arts.

The Scientific Department at present affords opportunity for instruction and practice in rudimentary chemical analysis—qualitative and quantitative,—and pharmaceutical chemistry, enabling the students to become familiar with the more common minerals, and the general methods for testing them. To such as desire to devote themselves to the medical profession, it gives a more practical acquaintance with general and medical chemistry than is usually acquired at our medical schools.

Donations of apparatus, minerals, &c., are solicited from the friends of scientific education for this growing department, as it has been necessary, by reason of insufficient means and proper appliances, to limit the number of admissions.

The students of this Department have organized themselves into an association for the promotion of its interests. The formation of detailed rules and regulations for the laboratory and library connected with it, is for the most part permitted to this society.

throughout the course:

Anthon's Classical Dictionary; Zumpt's Latin Grammar;

Kuehner's Greek Grammar; Ramshorn's Latin Synonyms; Davies & Peck's Mathematical Dictionary; Fowler's English Grammar; Webster's or Worcester's, Unabridged Dictionary; Worcester's Historical Atlas; Findlay's, or Butler's Classical Atlas; Story on the Constitution.

Tuition is given to such as desire it, in the Spanish, Italian, Anglo-Saxon and Syriac Languages, for which an extra charge is made.

The instruction in PHILOSOPHY and ENGLISH LITERATURE is given partly by recitations in History, Rhetoric, Logic, Political Economy, Metaphysics and Constitutional Law, and partly by lectures on the English Language and Literature, the Philosophy of History and Polity, and the History of Philosophy. Practical exercises in Writing and Speaking also receive special attention in this department.

The Course in the NATURAL SCIENCES includes recitations from text books, and lectures accompanied by illustrations and experiments. The apparatus is extensive and valuable, and annually increasing.

In the MATHEMATICAL department there are daily recitations. In the senior year, lectures are given on the theories and applications of the higher branches.

In the CLASSICAL department it frequently happens, that either different authors, or different portions of the same author, are read by successive classes; but this fact does not affect the amount of Greek and Latin required of those who apply for admission to the higher classes.

BIBLICAL COURSE.

Young men preparing for the ministry, who cannot take a full course, can take a select course adapted to their wants, which can be accomplished in two years after they are fully prepared to enter the Freshman Class. The essential parts of such a course are the following:

FIRST YEAR,.....The Latin, Greek and Mathematics of the Freshman Class; Mental Philosophy begun with the Sophomore Class; Hebrew begun.

SECOND YEAR,.....Mental Philosophy completed, Logic; Rhetoric; Paley's Evidences; Moral Philosophy; Butler's Analogy; New Testament Greek; Hebrew; Biblical Archæology; Ecclesiastical History.

Other kindred studies may be embraced according to the time and capacity of the student.

The Patronizing Conferences direct the attention of young men, who are candidates for the Ministry, to this course in the following Preamble and Resolution:

WHEREAS, Dickinson College provides for a course of instruction in the elements of Moral and Biblical Science and Literature; and

WHEREAS, This course is adjusted to the wants of those young men who are preparing for the Ministry, and who cannot take the full classical course. Therefore,

Resolved, That we advise those young men within our bounds, who feel called to preach the Gospel, to avail themselves, as far as practicable, of the advantages of this course of instruction.

RECITATIONS.

At the daily recitations, where the text admits of it, the old catechetical method of instruction is avoided as much as possible, and the student required to give a connected view of the subject in his own language, and without the aid of the professor, except on points not fully treated by the author,—thus cultivating at once the powers of memory, thought and discourse.

When the subject is susceptible of it, a written analysis of the previous lesson is required at each recitation; and at the public examination, a written analysis of the whole work.

EXAMINATIONS.

1—Of all the classes at the close of the Fall Session, on the studies of the session.

2—Of the Senior Class, four weeks before Commencement, on the entire course.

3—Of the other classes, the week before Commencement, on the studies of the session.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The College year is divided into two Sessions; the first beginning nine weeks from Commencement, and ending on the Wednesday preceding Christmas; the second beginning four weeks from the termination of the first, and ending at Commencement, on the last Thursday in June.

SUMMER VACATION.—From Commencement to the first Thursday of September.

WINTER VACATION.—From Wednesday before Christmas, FOUR WEEKS.

Where two students occupy a room, this will probably not exceed $7 50 per year to each. These are the only bills payable to College, except an incidental charge for damages. They are required to be paid to the Treasurer in advance, at the beginning of each session.

RESIDENCE, BOARD, &C.

Students not resident in town are required to lodge in the College, and to furnish their own rooms. Furniture can be purchased in Carlisle at moderate prices.

No boarding department is kept by the College. Most of the Students now board in clubs or voluntary associations, carefully organized and managed by themselves, constituting families of from fifteen to twenty persons each. The expense varies from $3 50 to $4 00 a week. Others board at such private boarding houses in town as are approved of by the Faculty, in which the price of Board varies from $4 00 to $5 00. Washing is $1 50 per month, or 37½ cents per dozen.

The facilities of the College for instruction in the department of Astronomy are ample. The Astronomical Observatory is provided with an Achromatic Telescope, manufactured by Henry Fitz, of New York. This Telescope has an object-glass of five inches, with a focal distance of seven feet, is Equatori-ally mounted, and furnished with Right Ascension and Declination Circles, and Clock Work, and is adapted to scientific research as well as instruction.

PRIZES.

By the liberality of Daniel Pierson, Esq., of Newark, New Jersey, the College has been furnished with funds to be appropriated as Prizes for Oratory. These prizes are in the form of a gold and a silver medal, to be given to such members of the Junior Class as excel in the combined merits of Declamation and Composition. This prize is known as the Pierson Prize

BENEFICIARY FUND.

A Society was organized several years since, having for its object to render aid to such young men as might need it in getting their education, who are preparing for the Ministry.

 Donations in money or Scholarships are solicited, and may be forwarded to Prof. S. D. Hillman, the Treasurer of the College.

Law School.

A Law Department is established in connection with the College, under the direction of the Hon. James H. Graham, LL. D., President Judge of the ninth judicial district of Pennsylvania.

The term of study required for admission to the bar is two years. No examination, and no particular course of previous study is required for admission.

The sessions of the Law School correspond with the College sessions, but students may enter the Law Department at any time, and the term of study will date from their entry. Students who have pursued their studies with a member of the bar, or law judge of Pennsylvania, for one year, will be admitted to the bar after one year's study in the Law School.

After the term of two year's study, the last year being in the Law Department connected with the College, and passing a satisfactory examination by a committee of the Carlisle Bar, students will be admitted to practice, and the degree of Bachelor of Laws conferred by the College on the certificate and recommendation of the Principal of the Law School.

A MOOT COURT will be held for the argument of causes previously assigned, and an opinion delivered by the Principal.

Recitations and examinations will be accompanied with occasional oral lectures and expositions on the subject of study. The fees are $25 00 a term, or $50 00 per annum, with an additional charge of $25 00 per annum, or $12 50 for six months, for admission to the MOOT COURT.

Grammar School.

The Grammar School is designed to prepare students for College, and the studies are arranged mainly to that end; but the course of studies is such as to meet the wants of those also who wish only an elementary English course.

For admission to this department, the student must be at least ten years of age, and have some acquaintance with the elementary English branches. It will be well for students to be present at the opening of the session, as the regular classes are formed at that time ; they will, however, be received at any time during the session.

The sessions, vacations, and term bills are the same as those of the Collège. The course of study extends through two years, each embracing two sessions, as follows :

General Remarks.

The government of the Institution is mild and parental. It is designed to secure attention to study and correctness of deportment, not so much by the enforcement of rigid rules, as by cultivating in the student a taste for intellectual pursuits and virtuous habits. But while youthful indiscretion will be treated with lenity, incurable indolence, bad morals, and pecuniary extravagance, will not be suffered to remain, to corrupt the good manners of students.

A faithful record is kept of the standing and deportment of each student, and a report is sent monthly to his parents or guardian.

Text Books and Stationery are kept for sale at the College, at prices below the city prices.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS OF THE STUDENT.

As economy is indispensable to the welfare of both the College and the student, and all experience teaches that youth should not be allowed the uncontrolled use of money, attention is called to the following extracts from the Statutes of the College. Though the faithful observance of these rules may not, in all cases, secure the economy desired, it will doubtless prove a salutary check upon temptations to extravagance and vice:

1. Every minor, whose parent or guardian does not reside in Carlisle, shall select some member of the Faculty as his Patron, who shall have special oversight of his deportment, and whose duty it shall be to afford such counsel as his circumstances require.

2. All funds for the use of a student shall be deposited with his Patron: and no student shall be permitted to remain in the Institution, who shall obtain money from any other source, unless he immediately deliver it to his Patron.

3. The Patron shall ascertain at the beginning of each session what expenses each student is allowed to incur, and be strictly governed by such information in his disbursements.

4. No Student shall contract any bill without the permission of his Patron.

5. College bills have the preference; all others according to the date of presentation; provided, that no bills shall be paid for horse or carriage hire, confectionery, fruit, eatables of any kind, or other articles unnecessary for a student.

6. The Patron is at liberty to furnish such pocket money as the parent or guardian may prescribe, provided it does not exceed what in his judgment, with the advice of the President, the interest of the student and of the Institution may require, and in no case shall it exceed one dollar a month.

7. In case any student shall borrow money, or contract any bill, contrary to the rules of the College, he shall be dealt with as for a high offence, and the payment of such a bill by him or for him, shall subject him to such a discipline as the circumstances may demand.

8. In the monthly report of each student, his Patron shall state the items of expenditure since the last report, together with the amount of funds received. The accounts of the Patron shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of the President and Faculty.

9. The Patron shall not be held personally responsible for any bill of any student. The expenses of correspondence in the discharge of his duties shall be charged to the accounts of the students concerned. As compensation for trouble, and risk, he may charge a commission of three per cent. on all moneys paid out.
